(You will find a folder for the 6-12-20 resources.)

- ✚ Please send your no-cost/low cost COVID -19 & Transition Related Resources & Student Learning Strategies to linda_oneal@cox.net so we can share with each other on our google drive. We need items that pertain to all stakeholders, including students, families, adults with disabilities, educational staff, administrators, service providers, community colleges, universities and any other interested individuals.
- ✚ Consider providing newsletters/emails and other social media to your students, families, co-workers, and business partners to ensure they get information that may include COVID-19 resources and emergency food distributions in your community.
- ✚ Keep in mind, many of these resources are free now, but may have a cost associated with them after the Pandemic is over. On a good note this does allow you the opportunity to try them out for possible purchase at-a-later-date.

9. Best Practices for Employers & Businesses During the COVID-19 Pandemic Webinar
(Amy Tingirides, LBUUSD)

6-16-20 10:00 AM

As California businesses reopen, there are many questions about how businesses can continue operations safely while considering the needs of employees and patrons with disabilities. A panel discussion, led by Rebecca Hoyt, DRC, with business consultants, professionals & disability leaders will address the following questions.

- What do businesses need to know about their responsibilities under the current Governor's orders and other laws?
- How has the COVID-19 pandemic changed the needs of employees and patrons with disabilities?
- How can employers take steps toward ensuring a safe work environment for employees and patrons with disabilities?
- How do businesses benefit from using best practices for safety and reasonable accommodations?
- Your questions!

14. Equal Opportunity & Accessibility for WIOA Partners during COVID-19 & Beyond
Thursday, June 18, 12-1:00 PM PT

During COVID-19, many American Job Centers and core workforce system partners have shifted to virtual services. COVID-19 has highlighted new accommodation needs for people with disabilities and the workforce staff who support them. State responses to these needs have varied. In order to offer support and provide examples of promising practices for workforce professionals in WIOA systems, the LEAD Center, a policy development center of the Department of Labor's Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP), is hosting a webinar that will provide information, strategies and resources around Section 188's equal opportunity and non-discrimination practices.

On Thursday, June 18, the LEAD Center will be joined by the Missouri State Equal Opportunity Officer and Senior Manager of Policy and Partnerships, who will use current COVID-19-related and general frontline scenarios to share effective accommodation practices and examples of equal opportunity policy/procedure implementation.

Join us for the webinar:
