SSI/SSP Recipients Will Be Eligible for CalFresh in Summer 2019

In the summer of 2019, the 'cash-out' policy that bans SSI recipients from receiving CalFresh (food stamps) will end.

SSI and SSP benefits will NOT be reduced or eliminated as a result of ending cash-out.

This change means that an SSI recipient may receive CalFresh AND SSI/SSP benefits.

Summary of Changes When Cash-Out Ends in Summer 2019

Newly Eligible for CalFresh	Still Eligible for CalFresh and/or State Funded Nutrition Benefits
Most SSI recipients, individuals and SSI couples, will be newly eligible for CalFresh in summer 2019.	Some SSI recipients will be living in a household where other members are already receiving CalFresh. At their next reporting deadline, these households will be asked to provide information about any SSI recipients – and then their CalFresh amount should be automatically recalculated.
They will need to apply over the phone, in person, or online. If approved, they will get an EBT card and the CalFresh benefit will be loaded onto it each month. The average CalFresh benefit for a household of 1 is $130 a month. Benefits will vary based on household circumstances.	For some households, adding the SSI recipient and their income may increase the CalFresh benefit. For other households, adding the SSI recipient and their income will lead to a partial or total loss of their CalFresh benefit. These households will be eligible to receive a state-funded nutrition benefit, either the Supplemental Nutrition Benefit (partial loss) or the Transitional Nutrition Benefit (total loss), which will help offset the loss of CalFresh.
