

OCASG Career Club

OCASG Career Club is a holistic program that focuses on providing training and support for college graduates on the spectrum to achieve short-term and long-term career success. Whenever possible, OCASG Career Club will leverage the programming of existing agencies, vendors, and organizations. This reduces costs and teaches participants to leverage the myriads of supports available in the county and state. Additionally, OCASG Career Club will focus on building the participant's skills and confidence so that they can eventually manage their own careers.

The Monday sessions will be staffed by employment experts, Rebecca Beam, CEO and Hilary Kokenda, COO of Zavikon, a staffing and recruiting agency focused on the neurodiverse population.

Topics by Date

- September 13 & 20: Orientation, Career Vision & Goal Setting
- October 18: Resume tips, Self-Branding
