Orange County Regional Office Highlights

- Project Leadership 4-part Training - SCDD OCRO staff collaborated with Down Syndrome Association of Orange County and RCOC's Cultural Specialist to offer the four-part Project Leadership Training to 14 parents over four days at the RCOC Office in Santa Ana. This training series is designed to help family members and individuals develop the skills, and access tools they need, to partner at all levels of decision-making, and engage in public policy advocacy activities.
- Disability Rights Workshop "Claiming the Power of the Count" - SCDD OCRO co-sponsored a census and voting conference alongside the ILC, Dayle McIntosh Center, on January 31, from 8:30am to 3:00pm at the Anaheim Downtown Community Center. SCDD OCRO coordinated and planned the entire conference, facilitated the discussions and presentations, and assisted with general conference logistics. The OC Registrar of Voters provided the keynote for this conference and it featured a voting panel, the OC Registrar of Voters highlighted their voting accessibility machines, assisting people with demonstration, and registering people to vote. Disability Rights California and the U.S. Census Bureau Partnership Specialists offered presentations on why the disability count is important and took people through a mock-census.
- Meeting with Deputy Chief Consultant for Assembly, Nicole Vazquez - SCDD OCRO alongside RCOC Executive Director, DRC/OCRA Clients Rights' Advocate, and other community advocates and family members met with Nicole Vasquez, Deputy Chief Consultant to the Assembly Budget Committee at the RCOC offices in Tustin, CA. SCDD OCRO staff had the opportunity to explain our role in Orange County and inform her of the current SCDD state plan goals and highlight the work of the OCRO in respect to capacity building and systemic change. Specific topics discussed included complex system navigation for those dual-diagnosed, Denti-Cal and its failures, housing and future-planning needs, gaps in the system, and current reimbursement/payment rates resulting in difficulty hiring qualified and long-term staff across-the-board in the IDD system.
