

Transition Road Map— And Puzzle

Destination: Career/Competitive, Integrated Employment

- ### Post-school Options
- Adult school
 - Apprenticeships
 - Vocational classes
 - Trade school
 - Community college
 - Four-year colleges

- ### Required at School
- Transition assessments
 - Transition plan in the IEP
 - Summary of Performance (SOP)

A-G Requirements — Career Technical Education

Students lead their own IEPs.

Students contribute to the formal transition plans in their IEPs.

Students are involved in their own IEPs.

Individualized Education Program (IEP)

- High School
- Junior High School
- Elementary School
- Preschool—Part B

Ways to Gain Work Experience

Start in preschool and focus through the grades on, for example, taking responsibility, working cooperatively, solving problems, managing time, etc.

- WorkAbility
- Regional Occupational Programs (ROP)
- Transition Partnership Program
- We Can Work
- Work-place readiness training

Ways to Learn What's Possible

Career fairs
Job shadowing
Work-based learning
Internships
Field trips to employers
Resource fairs
Job exploration activities
Field trips to local schools
Guided career development
Job and career counseling

Ways to Learning Strengths & Preferences

Person-centered planning
Career/interest assessments

Ways to Developing Essential Knowledge

Financial Literacy-Benefits planning
Self-determination coaching
Self-advocacy training

Ways to Connect and Engage

Family engagement
Volunteering
Summer jobs
Public transportation
Parks & recreation
Community events
Libraries

Always listening to the student's voice: "Nothing about me without me!"

Key

* For students with developmental disabilities

A-G Requirements: The high school courses that students must complete (with a grade of C or better) to be eligible for admission to the University of California (UC) and California State University (CSU).

IEP: Individualized Education Program

Part B: IDEA preschool and school services

Part C: IDEA Early Start services for infants and toddlers