

Register Now

Thompson Autism Center at CHOC Conference Working Together to Expand Horizons

Where?

Chapman University
Saturday, August 13, 2022
9:00 am – 3:00 pm
Chapman University,
Orange, California

Who Should Attend?

- Community Members
- Self-Advocates
- Families
- Medical Professionals
- Psychologists
- Behavior Support Professionals
- Students & Educators
- Service & Care Providers

Cost:

- Self-Advocates, Families, & Community Members: $20
- Professionals: $40
- Continental breakfast & lunch is included

Conference Schedule

Keynote Presentation

Residents & Staff of Glennwood House of Laguna Beach

Glennwood House is a residential apartment community that focuses on inclusion for adults with disabilities

Sessions

Journey to Adulthood Through Community Collaboration

Presenters: Dr. Richard Rosenberg & Michelle Kennedy, LMSW, ACSW

Benefits of Using a Co-Occurring Medical Treatment Model

Presenter: Dr. Tom Megerian

How to Be a Social Coach

Presenters: Dr. Jina Jang & Dr. Lauren Couch

Applications of Virtual Reality (VR) for Improving Teacher and Student Skills

Presenter: Dr. Casey Clay

Closing Panel Presentation

Challenges and Victories in Housing, Employment, and Post-Secondary Education

Featuring Patients, Parents, Rachel Landers, and Dr. Tom Megerian

Moderated by Linda O'Neal

Accessibility: The conference center is fully accessible via elevator and accessible parking is available close to the site.

ASL interpreters will be present for the conference. For additional accommodations, please email tpi@chapman.edu.

To register, please visit
chapman.edu/tpi-events

