

2023 LABOR LAW UPDATE

2023 looks to be a bit brighter regarding the pandemic, but the Legislature refocused its attention on passing a multitude of labor and employment bills. In addition, we are living in challenging times that are creating more stress, which often leads to BURNOUT. This onsite training event will go over critical updates for California employers and discuss the effect stress and burnout have on people and companies, as well as, how to address these issues in the workplace.
